Press Release

LAMBERTVILLE, NJ — What has become THE art auction and local happening in the Lambertville/New Hope area is back and more elegant than ever in 2023.

Plein Air Plus, artistic interpretations of historic Lambertville and neighboring river towns, is an annual fundraiser by the Lambertville Historical Society, taking place at Rago Arts and Auction House on Saturday, March 4, 5 to 7 p.m. This year offers an exclusive variety of styles, mediums and studio works of the surrounding area by local artists. More than 40 works of art will be featured during the Plein Air Plus event, held as a silent auction and benefitting the Lambertville Historical Society and the James Marshall House Museum.

All works will be on display and minimum bids will be set. Bidding will close at 7 p.m., sharp, with winners announced by 7:30 p.m. Plein Air Plus will also feature live music by local band The Lifters, hors d'oeuvres and beverages. There is a $20 suggested donation, $10 donation for LHS members.

The following is a complete list of participating artists: Judith Nentwig, Tracy Everly, Charlie Sahner, Angela Mikula, Ryan Lilienthal, Jean Childs Buzgo, Diane Greenberg, Ann Thomas, Helene Mazur, Bill Jersey, Laura Rutherford Renner, Matt Deprospero, Rita Siemienski Smith, Helena van Emmerik-Finn, Shirley Mersky, Carol Sanzalone, Elissa Goldberg, Jennifer Kish, Michelle Farro, Martha Wirkijowski, Deb Pisacreta, Kay King, Annelies Van Dommelen, Kelly Sullivan, Eleanor Voorhees

Plein Air Plus is made possible with generous support provided by many local businesses and establishments.

Special thanks extended to PageOne Creative Group and Rago Arts & Auction Center.

Proceeds from the silent auction benefit the Lambertville Historical Society and the James Marshall House Museum. Parking is available in the rear of the building accessed via Cherry Street.
